

YOUR PERSONAL TRAINING WEB SITE

As an additional service, we wish to provide you with a comprehensive library of our Canine Obedience Training and Behavior Resolution Solutions. Your Personalized Training Notes will be on this site as well as additional resources that we provide exclusively to our clients. There are also additional topics included in our library that you can use in the event new issues arise in the future.

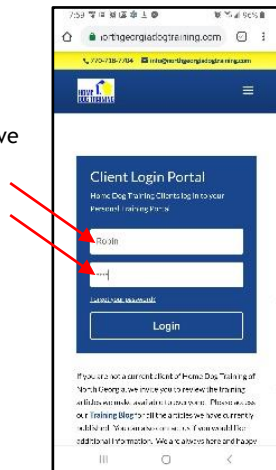

We still look forward and encourage you to call us whenever you have questions at 770-718-7704 or 770-718-7716.

Access Your Personal Training Page via Cell Phone

Go to <https://northgeorgiadogtraining.com> and access the pulldown menu. Click on Client Area:

Enter the User Name and Password we have provided in our initial email after our lesson:

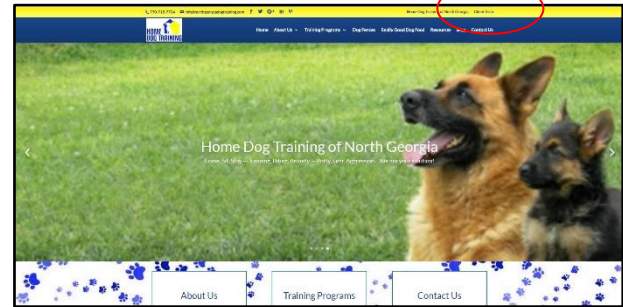

You now have access to your private Training Web Site. You will find any notes we have provided from our training sessions. There are also detailed training instructions and behavior improvement techniques that we only provide our clients. You will also find links to training supplies.
